

PROFESSOR PRAHLAD K. BASU

B.A. Economics Honours with Mathematics. Presidency College, Calcutta, First Class Honours rank First in University; B.A. Economics, Tripos (Cantab), M.A., (Cantab) Awarded the prestigious Overbrook Fellowship at Yale University, USA,. Ph.D. (Business Administration), CCMgt.I (London); F.Inst. Pub. Administration (New York), Secretary to the Government of India, in the Ministries of Steel, Mines, Programme Implementation 1982-1990 and Director General of the Bureau of Public Enterprises 1979-82 Minister of State, Government of India, Chairman, The Strategic Management Group of India (2004 till date), And concurrently Director of Cambridge Advanced Management Programme in U.K. from 2004 (Kings), 2005 (Clare), 2006 (Clare), 2007 (Clare), 2008 (Queens), 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 (St. Catharine's), UN Advisor, APDAC, Kuala Lumpur, World Bank Advisor, Kampala and UN Adhoc advisor to Brunei, Brazil, Kenya and Turkmenistan ; Professor of Management in various Universities in India and U.K. including Senior Member, High-Table Kings College, Cambridge; Fellow of Churchill College & Professor Judge Business School as well as Chairman of the Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta and Chairman of National Aluminum company & Managing Director of Shipping Corporation of India besides being Director of Tata Iron & Steel, Tata Tea, Tata Chemicals, Walchand Nagar Industries etc. etc.